Hastings Farm: "At the Center of Things"

Sonny and Jay Hastings are the sixth and seventh generation of their family to work the Hastings Farm in East Bethel. The story of the dairy farm and the family who work it is the subject of a one-hour episode of "Our Stories," a production of Maine Public Television, which will preview Saturday at 7 p.m. in Gould Academy's Bingham Hall. The episode is scheduled to be televised on MPT at 8 p.m. on May 13. Saturday's preview at Gould will also include three other episodes from the series: "The Cranberry Report" (Islesford) at 2 p.m., "The Harvest of Hope" (Fort Kent) at 3:10, and "Healing Woods" (Indian Township) at 8:10. All the screenings are free and open to the public. The lower part of the house shown here behind Sonny and Jay is thought to date from the middle eighteenth century, which would make it one of the earliest buildings in Bethel. And, of course, the down side to the early spring -- the skiers left sooner and the ticks and fleas came Loggers, who generally can't operate in the woods for much of mud season, only had to leave for a short time -- or not at all.

"I love it," said logger Roger Wheeler of Bethel. "We never actually got out of the woods."

Contrast that with last year, when Wheeler left the third week in March and didn't return until the third week in May.

In addition to the early warm

Spring was even early in Andover. It gave the Water District's contractor a quick start on the new pumphouse planned as part of AWD's water system project.

"We had hoped for a May 1 groundbreaking," said trustee Anne Glazier, "but they were able to start last Thursday (April 23).

And on a personal level, said Glazier, she and her husband were able to get their seven sheep outside earlier this season -- to graze on the temperatures, said Wheeler, miniearly crop of green grass.

Farther south, the ice went out of Lake Christopher April 13. Usually, ice-out happens "sometime in the 20s," reports lake resident Nancy Willard. The record for ice going out of the lake is April 10.

Five jump in for selectman

By MICHAEL DANIELS

A flurry of last-minute filings has put five names on the ballot for Bethel selectman.

As of last Wednesday no candidates had filed, and only one potential candidate had even taken out papers.

But by Friday's 5 p.m. deadline five sets of papers were in, complete with the needed number of signatures.

Those submitting papers were, in alphabetical order. Al Barth, who currently represents the area in the Maine House of Representatives; Don G. Bennett, an independent logger; Robert Everett, co-owner of Bethel Auto Sales; Dave Nivus, co-owner of The Good Food Store; and Jonathan "Jeremy" Grimm, proprietor of The Java House.

On June 9 voters will select two of the above to fill three-year terms on the board. Neither of the two incumbents, Ruth Grover and John Thurston, is seeking reelection.

There were no filings, last-minute or otherwise, for the two open seats on the SAD44 School Board. Voters will need to write in their choices for these positions.

Telstar High School baseball coach Bob Remington won't guarantee how well his team will do this season. He also won't guarantee he will return next year as the coach. But despite those uncertainties, he

Last season, Telstar went to the Western Class C Championship game, where they lost to St. Dom's.

AN INVESTMENT IN OUR YOUTH

To the Editor:

The American Legion is a nonprofit organization dedicated to serve the community. Several of the programs are directed toward the youth

One of the programs in which we feel is needed is the Legion baseball. The purpose and scope of American Legion Baseball are: 1) To inculcate in our American youth a better understanding of the American way of life and to promote 100 percent Americanism. 2) To instill in our nation's youth a sincere desire to develop within themselves a feeling of citizenship, sportsmanship, loyalty and team spirit. 3) To aid in the improvement and development of the physical fitness of our country's youth, 4) To build for the nation's future through our youth.

A baseball program, running through the summer months, consisting of 24 games, takes a great deal of funding. This program costs between $5,060 and $7,000 per year. Home games are played at Gould Academy, and the ballplayers are those within the SAD44 area, up to the age of 19.

The purpose of this letter is to ask for a donation, so we can continue this program and help the youth within the community. To donate to this program, please send a tax-deductible check to: Jackson-Silver Post 68, Baseball Fund, P.O. Box 178, Locke Mills, ME 04255

OLDEST NATIVE MALE CITIZEN SPEAKS OUT

To the Editor:

I live on a farm at the end of the lake at Howard Pond in Hanover. I am surrounded by my own posted woodland and not much bothers me. However, as Hanover's oldest native male citizen, I realize I must take a strong stand against Mead Paper's plans to build a chip plant in town.

Over the years we have all come out of seclusion at times to do battle against things not good for Hanover, once for an ill-advised hydroplant, once again for a proposed bottle club, but this mill project if allowed to proceed means the end of Hanover as it exists today. I don't believe too many people even now realize the size and amount of wood this mill is going to process. They can say anything they like about noise levels. Anyone with any common sense knows it will be terrible. It is the kind of all-consuming noise that is just as bad a mile away as it is on-site. Anyone living in the village will never again be annoyed by the sound of their neighbor's lawn mower or chainsaw.

I find it very hard to understand the attitude of our selectmen and members of the Planning Board in regard to this mill. They are so upset if any citizen has the nerve to question their handling of the situation, while at the same time their answers to our questions insult our intelligence, and it is so very obvious that they are grossly unfit to cope with these matters. I would remind them all that they are working for all the townsfolk not just those who are in favor of the mill. I would caution the Planning Board to adhere very carefully to the summary in our comprehensive plan as it applies in all ways to this project.

I would say to our selectmen I understand you are having a study done in regard to the great tax advantage this mill would bring, to Hanover. Let's be practical, with the loss in valuation to all the homes in town and the many unforeseen problems this mill would bring, there will be no tax advantage.

I would be willing to gamble if this mill came into town, within two years our taxes would be higher than they are now and not one Hanover citizen would be employed at the mill. Let's stop dreaming and all work together to put an end to this thing before it is too late. In closing, I would warn our town officials if this thing goes through they should be prepared to spend a lot of time in court as their troubles will never end.

IT'S COMING

To the Editor:

Folks choose to live in our valley for many reasons. For some, their families have always been here. It's a good place to raise families, quiet neighborhoods, beautiful views, and little congestion are among the reasons people love our area.

Now an invasion is underway. Our new neighbor is Big Business. It is coming to stay and change our lives It's coming to Albany Township, where the Passamaquoddy Indian Tribe wants a bingo hall in a quiet and rural neighborhood. It's coming to country roads and front yards as the new natural gas pipelines are put down, with bigger power lines soon to follow across our hillsides. It's coming to Hanover, with Mead Corporation's plan for a chip mill in a quiet country village. Residents who oppose the invasions are called "a minority of radicals" because they want to preserve their way of life. They have a right to speak against the intrusion. The solution is simple. Big Business has made a mistake. Can the Passamaquoddy Tribe, Mead Corporation and other Big Businesses correct their mistakes?

Homestead Exemption -- Big Deal

By MIKE BROWN

The Maine greeting around November time is, "Gotcha deer yet?" In April of this year it's, "Gotcha homestead exemption paper yet?"

As Mainers are slowly finding out, the Legislature's wampum offering to teepee taxpayers this year is a string of beads called a homestead exemption. That is, folks who claim to be Maine residents and their permanent home for a year is also Dirigoland, then they get $7,000 knocked off their local property

Resident renters and out-of-state summer camp and cottage rusticators get zip.

Big deal, huh? Well, perhaps anything is better than nothing, which is exactly what some residents will get or almost get. Actually, you see, each individual property tax is not adjusted by $7,000, but by a bizarre complicated formula (developed parcel ratio) that only a bureaucratic state rocket tax scientist understands. Then this "just value" is plugged into the municipal's overall local property valuation. The municipality then sets a common homestead exemption number. Maybe, say, 125 clams off your $150,000 valuation. Big deal.

And maybe if the new Legislature next year runs into money woes, which it surely will, homeowners will get zip. The homestead exemption is a one-time $46 million political package contrived by the Democrats and Gov. Angus King to be opened by voters in this year's election. The Republicans, who had no say in much of anything for the past two years, preferred a 1- percent reduction in the sales tax rather than the stuffed homestead homing pigeon. The D's and King said the state couldn't afford a $100 million sales tax bite. And all the while the homing pigeon was being fattened over in the offices of the Maine Municipal Association which actually bred and raised the bird for the guv and donkey clan's adoption.

The private MMA outfit gets millions of dollars a year in bird seed from about 400 municipalities. Anyway, homestead it is but applications have to be filed before May 15 of this year or homeowners will get zip soup instead of clam chowder. Folks who have relatives in tax-free southern climes and arrive back in Maine only when the ice melts had better make a quick phone call. The one-page homestead application is simple and tricky. In typical gummint language, one yes-or-noanswer question asks, "I have not applied for a homestead exemption in any other place." A quickie poll survey of exasperated town clerks found that 90 percent answered no when they should have answered yes. Which, of course, makes for local chaos. By the way, the state is reimbursing local communities for their $7,000 per homestead tax loss, if it can be figured out before the state runs out of $46 million, plus $2.20 per application processed. Big

Resident renters, who probably earn less than resident homeowners and could more use a tax break and are stiffed in the exemption are thrown a bone called the "circuit breaker." This is a fuzzy, mossy, years-old program said to help homeowners and renters whose property tax was high relative to their

A state rocket tax scientist explains: A certain portion of rent is treated as property tax obligation. If the property tax portion of the rent exceeds a certain percentage of a renter's income, they are eligible for payment under the program. This session, the Legislature raised the percentage of rent treated as property taxes. Big deal.

Maine taxpayers, both residents and rusticators, have to come up with about $6 billion to support state and local governments. Local governments are not giving any of their-revenue portion back in property tax relief. But now the state throws folks a onetime political bone of perhaps $43 million for its portion while legislators and Gov. King increased the state budget $600 million over the past two sessions. Big deal.

Perhaps when Mainers get their refunds they should insist on cash and buy some tea bags.

WOODSTOCK--Town Menager Vern Maxfield said Tuesday he is optimistic the town will be able to offer swimming lessons this year at the Maine Conservation School on Lake Christopher. "It's looking really good for the last week in July and the first week in August. I'm really pleased about this, " Maxfield told selectmen. Some insurance issues remain to be settled, he said, but he sees no problem with them. If the lessons go off as planned, Greenwood children would also probably be invited to participate. Lessons for the two towns had previously been offered at the Greenwood town beach, but were discontinued by Greenwood last year because of cost and a drop in participation by Greenwood

Parking restriction proposed

WOODSTOCK--Town Manager Vern Maxfield will check with the town's Recreation Committee regarding a suggestion from George Hooper to allow parking on only one side of Lakeside Drive during ball games at the town field. Maxfield said cars currently park on both sides of the road, and could possibly block emergency vehicles from getting

Car windows broken

LOCKE MILLS--Four cars parked outside the Greenwood Town Hall were vandalized Saturday night, according to Oxford County Sheriff's Deputy Dane Tripp. The cars' owners, who attended a dance at the hall, parked the vehicles at about 8 p.m. When they returned around 11 p.m., the side windows had been smashed. A flashlight and a small amount of change were taken from two of the vehicles. Some juveniles were seen in the area at about 10:30 p.m., Tripp said, and the Sheriff's Department is investigating.

Old safe still holds its secrets

BETHEL--An 1800s-vintage safe found last week during excavation for the addition to the Bethel Inn yielded only empty shelves when its top chamber was opened by locksmiths. But getting into the strong box portion will take more effort. The safe is currently in the care of Jack Cross, a contractor for the addition project. It was apparently buried on the site after the Bethel House -- an inn previously on the site of the Bethel Inn -burned in 1910.

Hanover officials tour chip mill

HANOVER--Two Hanover selectmen, two Planning Board members and the town's code enforcement officer last week toured a Fulghum Fibres wood chipping mill in Dewy Rose, Ga. The tour was arranged by Fulghum and the Mead Corporation of Rumford to try to put to rest townspeople's concerns about a similar chip plant proposed for Hanover. The Hanover mill would be twice the size of the Georgia plant. Fulghum president Thomas Fulghum reportedly assured the officials the Hanover mill would be built to local noise specifications -- and the company would accept penalties if the plant exceeded those levels. He plans to meet with selectmen and planners regarding an agreement. Several of the town officials said they had gathered a lot of information on the Georgia plant's operation to present to townspeople at a Town Meeting, expected to be scheduled in the near future.

Walk from Norway to Norway

NORWAY--On Saturday, May 9, Western Maine Health will kick off the Passport to Fitness walk program and National Hospital Week with a community "fun walk." And beginning on the 9th and continuing through July 31, participants in the program will keep a weekly log of the miles they have walked. Every two weeks, walkers will send in or drop off a log of their mileage at designated locations throughout the area. WMH will tabulate the total miles walked and post them on their web site at http://www.wmhcc.com. The program goal is to have all participants log a grand total 7,000 miles or the equivalent of walking from Norway, Maine to the country of Norway. An arrangement has also been worked out whereby 15 minutes of continuous aerobic exercise will count as one mile of walking. At the end of the program, prizes will be awarded based on individual mileage. For more information, call 207-743-5933 ext. 472.

Gay rights ordinance approved

BAR HARBOR--The town council of Bar Harbor last week voted to enact an ordinance prohibiting discrimination based on sexual orienta-tion. The vote was 6-1. The vote comes in the wake of a statewide vote in February that repealed the Maine Human Rights Act, which gave pro-tection to homosexuals. The Bar Harbor ordinance takes effect May 21.

Heritage Park plans photo exhibit

BERLIN, N.H .-- The Northern Forest Heritage Park is hosting a special exhibit of photographs and personal artifacts of noted White Mountain landscape photographer Guy Leslie Shorey (1881-1961). The exhibit will be on display at the Brown Company House Museum, 961 Maine Street, through June 1. Regular exhibit hours are Monday through Friday from 12 to 4 p.m. For more information, contact the Heritage park at 603-752-7202.

MDOT seeks lake protection projects

AUGUSTA--To help reduce pollution and other lake damage from adjacent highways, the Maine Department of Transportation has created a State Highway Lake Protection Program, and is looking for potential projects. The SHLPP has two purposes: to identify potential project locations where lake water quality is being adversely impacted by runoff from arterial and major collector highways, and second, to select and prioritize potential pollution elimination projects for funding under the program. There is currently $200,000 available for the program. While there is no deadline for applications to be considered, they will be reviewed and selected in the order in which they are received. For more information contact Susan Breau at 207-287-3363 or e-mail at susan.breau@state.me.us.

Prowler had four long legs

At 9:16 p.m. on April 28 a caller reported she had seen what she thought was a person running up her driveway. Police searched the dirt driveway only to find a set of fresh moose tracks. The officer told her it was probably the moose she had seen in the shadows, and the car was likely either lost or had seen the moose and wanted a better look,

At 10:25 a.m. a worker cutting trees on Broad Street reported he had hit a parked car with a branch. The car was parked in a "no parking" zone, and the owner was nowhere to be found. The license plate was not on file. Police planned to file paperwork if the owner requested it.

Friday, April 24

At 10:25 p.m., while traveling north on Rte. 26, police observed a vehicle headed south at a high rate of speed -- 85 miles per hour on radar. The vehicle was stopped. The operator, Danny Harrington of Bethel, was issued a summons for exceeding the speed limit by 30 miles per hour or more.

Sunday, April 26

At 1:05 p.m., while on patrol, police observed a vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed on Rte. 26. The speed was confirmed on radar at 73 miles per hour. The vehicle was stopped, and the driver, Casey Parker of Locke Mills, was given a summons for speeding 16 to 25 miles per hour over the limit.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log, but does not include all reports of police activity. The staff of the White Mountain National Forest is seeking help in its efforts to clean up from the January ice storm. Such assistance, Forest Service officials say will help make it possible for them to open the trails in the National Forest, and other areas in Northern New Hampshire for summer hiking and winter cross-country skiing. Approximately half of the 1,200 miles of trail on the National Forest sustained moderate to severe

Warm weather

Add to that the extra lawn cleanup work generated by the ice storm, and Welsh was scrambling to get things done.

Now, she expects her lawn-mowing duties will begin about a week and a half earlier than usual. And at the Bethel Inn & Country Club, mowing of the golf course will apparently begin sooner, too. The Inn announced Tuesday that its course will open tomorrow (Friday) for the season. "An unusually early spring and warm weather has accelerated the opening of the course for the season," said course superintendent Evan Connors. "The greens are in great shape.'

There is, of course, a down side to the early warmth. Dr. Gary Stuer of the Bethel Animal Hospital is advising his clients to start treating their pets for fleas and ticks right away,

"Usually we don't see fleas until the end of May," he said. "but they're definitely here." Ticks are also early, he said.

Stuer generally tells people to apply anti-flea and tick treatments in mid-May or early June. But, he said, "do it now."

Mosquitoes and black flies, how-ever, have apparently been kept at bay, at least for now. Wheeler thinks the dry woods has limited the number of pools and puddles for breeding. Welsh also credits the recent cold nights. The early warmth also melted the snow on Sunday River Ski Resort's trails sooner. The skiway was hoping to hold on to enough snow to stay open until Sunday -- its planned closing day for the season. Sunday River has not yet released its 1997-98 skier visit numbers.

Be patient

Despite the early warmth, experienced gardeners who know Maine's fickle weather aren't jumping the gun on planting.
Welsh said she has seen a few cases of people setting out flowers too early. "I hope they will cover them -- or be prepared to go back and replant," she said, if May should bring a frost.

Area potato farmer Arthur Ladd is holding off planting his 400 acres until sometime between the fifth and 10th of May.

Yes, he says, the weather has been unusual this year. "Who ever heard of 80s in April, say nothing of late March?" he asked.

But he remembers when he decided to plant on April 25 30 years ago, when the spring was unusually warm. The potato crop, he said, didn't do well. "I'll never do it again," he said.

Besides, said Ladd, "We'll probably get a snowstorm before May 10."

charitable endowment that supports nonprofit and public organizations that build a greater sense of com-munity in Oxford County.

The committee's goal is to build the fund to $1 million, so that $50,000 is available annually for Oxford County groups.

The fund awards grants ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 for projects that seek to apply community strengths to solve some of the region's problems. Proposals are reviewed quarterly by a committee of Oxford County residents. The deadlines for submitting proposals in 1998 are July 15 and Oct. 1.

Members of the newly formed Oxford County Fund Advisory Committee include Wendy Penley of Bethel, Wayne Gallant of Rumford, Lucy Nordahl of Bethel, Elaine Montpelier of Norway, and Jolan Ippolito of Newry/Rumford.

The members of the Oxford County Fund Advisory Committee met last week to review requests for funding from area nonprofit organizations, and to introduce community members to the newly formed charitable fund to benefit Oxford County.

The Oxford County Fund is one of seven county funds held by the Maine Community Foundation, a statewide, nonprofit community foundation. Other counties with restricted funds include Washington, Waldo, Knox, Piscataquis, and Aroostook counties, as well as the Western Mountains region.

The Maine Community Foundation has assets of $46.5 million. In 1997, the foundation distributed over $2.7 million in grants and scholarships to 900 nonprofit organizations and students in Maine. Since 1983, the foundation has awarded 92 grants and scholarships totaling $115,178 to Oxford County students and organizations.

will still need to come up with a way to cover the $200,000 funding shortfall for the plant upgrade.

The town selectmen held a special meeting Monday to discuss their

Most of the meeting was in executive (closed) session, but in a concluding open session they agreed to a three-point course of further ac-

1) See if some of the shortfall can come from the developers of Bethel Station.

Town Manager Phil Tarr was instructed to set up a meeting with Grant Wilson, who was one of the three original partners in Bethel Station and remains its primary financial backer; and with Dave Oppenheim, the project's present general manager.

The selectmen also asked that Les Otten be included in the meeting. Otten, who is chairman and chief executive officer of the Newrybased American Skiing Company, was another of the three original partners in Bethel Station, but he has had little public involvement with the project in the past three

2) The selectmen have also scheduled a special Town Meeting for May 11, at which voters will be asked to approve any changes needed in the upgrade funding package.

The exact details of such a package are yet to be worked out, and the selectmen stressed the need to involve the town Budget Committee in any recommendations they will make to voters.

Dutch Dresser, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, said the recommendation that appears most likely at this point would be to increase the amount of money the town will borrow for the project to $1,302,974 (voters have already approved borrowing $1,102,974).
The additional loan money would then be repaid from sewer-system revenues, primarily Sewer System Development Charges, Dresser

3) The final step will be to have the town attorney determine if the town could still capture the original $200,000 grant money at a later date, if Bethel Station eventually ends up creating the needed number

If that were to occur, the grant money could then be used to pay off the additional borrowing.

Because we got started so late, we were hungry and decided to grab a chicken sandwich at Arby's before heading for the movies. We arrived at the theater just in time for the 12:25 showing and slid into the darkened room just as the previews were starting. I was not looking forward to sitting though a sci-fi remake of a space show with unrealistic characters and situations. As the feature movie started Stephen looked at me with wide-eyed expectations, and I smiled back with the best intentions of suffering through the two-hour, multi-million dollar Hollywood production.

Seeing his excited face illuminated in the dark by the flashes of film clips, softened my mature heart and I immediately forgot about my cinema anxieties. I began to focus on the fact that we were there in the dark, sharing this time together. I don't know if it was the magic of the movie or of spending two hours away from all the other worldly things which was so fulfilling, but we came away from the experience with a better feeling about each other. I had seen the world of fantasy through the eyes of my child and I liked the feeling.

Stephen and I reran a number of scenes again and again on the way home in the car. The plot was full of twists and surprise situations centered around a family with very typical characters. Their gadgets and transportation seemed exotic, but otherwise they were very believable with the same relationship problems as today's families. The special effects were terrific and the music commendable.

We didn't buy sneakers or get the trampoline set up, but we had a good day alone in the midst of the heater goers and later the mall shoppers. The day hadn't been as grand and perfect as we had previously imagined and that was ok. We agreed that we would plan another day together soon.

Richard Grover If you're wondering what happened to last week's article, the answer is that I had a busy weekend and plain forgot my obligation. Friday evenings are our time to, unwind from the work week, and it's, usually beer and pizza at the Suds. Saturday found me helping prepare the "old homestead" for formal destruction; we removed the steel roofing, all the windows and doors, appliances and heavy items from the house. Now it looks as if a tornado came by, and after about 178 years, the old place is about to syccumb to the wrecking ball. By evening, my back had had enough, and I fell asleep early. Sunday was regard for filled with little odd jobs around the happening. House and an afternoon American Legion function at the Norway post.

On the way home Mona and I were discussing what to have for supper, since we had been snacking at "the Norway Legion post. We finally settled on an ice cream cone from Tut's Store in North Waterford. Ever have an ice cream there? If not, try it. But be careful what you ottler. They have four cone sizes: "preemie," "toddler," "small," and "on my God," I think. We ordered toddlers, and it was all we could do to finish them, and the ice cream was good, too. A "small" must be big enough to feed an entire redneck

T've been reading about all the birds people have been seeing and hearing around here, but we have some that I haven't heard mentioned. We have tinpeckers. They are black and white, with a little red topknot and are about the size of a halry woodpecker. One of them sits atop the light pole at the end of our driveway and hammers away, while another one stands on the roof of the oldshen house across the road and pounds on a particularly loose and very loud sheet of steel roofing. Actually, they are yellow-bellied sapsückers, and they return every year to hest in the poplars around the hen house. The only thing I can think of that the one on the "tin roof" is doing is boasting about how hard his

"beak" is. EThis week, as I watched the old house rapidly disintegrate and reappear as a pile of rubble in the middle of the field across the road, a series of old memories appeared on the movie screen of my mind. There was the partridge on the front doorstep at breakfast time -- my brothers, Sian and Robert, fighting in the upstairs "open chamber" -- my black dob, Prince, sleeping on the porch by the kitchen door while a very large porcupine chewed on the kitchen door -- the big "coon" rattling pots and pans under the kitchen sink in the middle of the night as he tried to find the baby ducklings in the box on the counter -- finding my bed covered by six homemade quilts in, spring after a cold winter -seeing the snow sift through the cracks around my bedroom window, while the wind howled outside on an Arctic January night -- boys peeing out the upstairs bedroom window on cold nights when the outhouse secmed a long, cold way away --dressing my feet against the living room stove on cold mornings --waking at night to the sound of older brothers on the roof putting rock salt down the chimney to extinguish

Of course, some days I do most of my walking at school - I keep saying I'm going to get a pedometer and find out how fat I actually walk between classes. Today, I found the first tick of the season. It was lodged in Tasha's ear. It was quite tiny, but holding one for life. Needless to say, I deprived it. Sometimes I feel guilty killing a living thing, but in the case of ticks,

I get over it quickly.

We went over to Grafton Notch yesterday and walked around, at Screw Auger Falls. It was lovely, but the water did not look that deep, especially considering that it rained Friday and Saturday. There were no bugs in evidence, but the trees looked about to leaf. I saw a bunch that I couldn't identify, but I'll have to try and look it up. It had reddish branches with green leaves ---still coiled up -- and a green tuft that looked like it might flower. If any-one can identify it from that poor description, please let me know.

I also planted some peas yesterday. They're just in the front, by the steps, but if they come up it will be some early peas for us. Usually I don't get any till late July. I'm-still looking for the crocuses I planted last year to flower. I think they may not. Same with the spinach I planted ilast fall. We do have some pansies outrifront, waiting to be planted. Maybe I'll leave them in the container and try to save them in the fall. It would be nice to have some color in the house in the winter. Of course, in this house it's almost impossible to keep any plants alive between the cold and the heat from the wood stove and the lack of sunlight. It takes someone with more time and more of a green thumb than I seem to have.

I hope Polly can still put this in, as I'm rather late, but you can blame it on "Merlin." Have a good week and enjoy May Day.

Colista Morgan have just a few courageous daffodils. They are a delight. Right now, these shoots of new green are more important than the whole forest in May, for right now they lift the spirit. Spring.

As I enjoyed the blossoms, I also enjoyed the talking waters. On warm afternoons they even sing. I try to supply the words.

Spring brings the peepers, the tiny tree toad with the bell-toned April voice. It hibernates but it has arrived hungry for food and a mate. I like to hear them fill the evening with their voices.

Another spring "singer" has arrived, the grackle, clattering. That's a sign that real singers will be here soon. Then the dawn chorus will be the top concert of each country day. Î'm looking forward to that time.

Some days have been warm and I then enjoyed my lawn swing.

On the second string, Gil was high, beating Bea by three pins. On the third string, Gil was high, beating. Doris by three pins. So, on the overall scores Gil was high on the singles, beating Bea by three pins. She was also high on the triples, beating Bea by three pins. She had one strike and one spare, Bea had two spares.

West Paris Russell Yates Howdy friends. This 22nd day of April is starting out beautiful, and we hope that it will continue for all day. It was cool here, but is warming up nicely.

Last Monday found Peggy and myself staying home to do some work. I spent many hours in the greenhouse, getting seeds planted, and Peggy has been doing a lot of raking and cleaning up around. The ice storm sure left a lot of hard work for people to do. Our neighbors had trees that had to be taken down and they have been cleaning up the area where they

Peggy was joined by Bertha Benoit, at West Paris Grange Hall, last Wednesday morning and they spent several hours cleaning to make both the upstairs and downstairs more presentable CWA Night, which would be held the following evening. I stayed at home and did a variety of jobs and was preparing for dinner when Peggy returned. Wednesday afternoon we decided to go to the cemeteries to pick up the flower boxes that we put on some of the cemetery lots each

Memorial. We started for Middle Intervale Cemetery on the East Bethel Road, after picking up the boxes in West Paris Cemetery, but we learned that the truck was leaking oil, so we only went as far as Bryant Pond before turning around and coming back home. We then took Peggy's car and finished picking up the boxes. We usually pick up the boxes in the fall, but somehow, we neglected to do so

On Thursday morning I had a 10 a.m. appointment with Dr. Ware, but we went to the hospital before that so that I could have a prothrombin blood test. Peggy had to stop at Shop 'n Save to pick up some items for her CWA Night.

Thursday evening we left for West Paris Grange Hall quite early as Peggy had to prepare for the Potluck Supper, which started at 6:30 p.m. Those donating food did real well and Peggy had brownies and pound cake with ice cream for dessert. There was an abundance of food with lots left after all of the people had eaten. Peggy had invited ladies from many different granges to come and be officers for the evening and nearly all came to help out. It was a very successful supper and meeting, and I think it was enjoyed by all.

We went downstreet Friday morning to take care of many errands and to pick up groceries that we needed at Shop 'n Save.

We also needed some supplies at Fare Share Co-op, and we visited at Market Square Nursing Home.

We had just returned home when Peggy got a call from her daughter, Myrna White of Auburn, that they were coming up for dinner. Peggy hustled around and had dinner ready at the usual time. Myrna and husband, Whitey, had arrived and would have stayed to visit in the afternoon, but we got a phone call from brother Bryce Yates, as he was checking to see if the Whites were here.

When he and Barbara visited Myrna and Whitey in Arizona, he had loaded many items, belonging to the Whites, into his motorhome to bring back to Maine for them and wished that he might deliver them to their home in Auburn that afternoon. So after eating dinner, they returned home so as to be there for delivery.

Saturday evening found Peggy and myself attending the dance at Locke Mills Town Hall. We had both worked at different things during the day and our desires to dance didn't last until the end of the dancing, so we returned home

Sunday morning we attended the Grange Go To Church Sunday by attending the West Paris Baptist Church' Services with other members of the West Paris Grange, Pastor Gordon DeHaas welcomed all grangers and presented a nice service.

Sunday afternoon we went to West Paris Grange Hall to congratulate Charlie and Kathleen Holden, as they were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Many family members were there to help them celebrate.

We only stayed at the anniversary party for a little while and then went to the Veteran's Home, in South Paris, to listen to the Richard Felt Orchestra, as they were there entertaining the patients with good music during the afternoon.

Kathleen Holden, from High Street, was a caller at Mary Lovejoy's on Tuesday.

David Small, from Kennebunkport, was also a visitor there one day last week.

There will be a dance at the former West Sumner Grange Hall on May 2. It is hoped that this dance will be well attended.

Don't forget the Craft, . White Elephant and Food Sale to be held at West Paris Grange Hall on May 2, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Cookie Walk will be featured again, and there will be lots of food and lunch items for sale.

Oxford Pomona Grange will be hosted by Bear Mountain Grange of South Waterford on May 5. Grangers are to bring some hot dishes as well as desserts. Hope to see all Pomona Grange members

The top three 1998 hitters, at least so far, are all seniors -- outfielders Nate Whitworth and Jeremy Lapham, and pitcher/first baseman Jason Mullen.

Joining them in this year's lineup are: seniors Grayson Wakefield (outfield), Scott Groves (catcher), Josh Dakin (outfield/third base), Matt Koskela (outfield); juniors Jeremy Curley (shortstop), Jason Rosenberg (pitcher/third base), Neil (pitcher/first Thurlow base/outfield); sophomore Ross Baker (pitcher/second base) and freshman Greg Koch (second base/outfield).

Groves, Thurlow and Baker have also looked good in hitting early, said Remington.

The defense looks solid as well. "They have good speed -- they can cover a lot of ground to get to balls, and they have strong arms," Remington said.

Pitchers Mullen and Rosenberg had some experience on the mound last year. "We've worked hard on pitching this spring," said Reming-

Baker, he said, also shows promise. "He has the potential to be our best pitcher as time goes on," Remington said.

As for the opposition, the Class B schools in the Mountain Valley Conference -- Leavitt, Lisbon and Mountain Valley -- should be tough, said Remington, along with Class C Livermore Falls.

But, he said, "we have a good shot at getting into the playoffs. If the the high school.

This is Remington's last year teaching at Telstar Middle School and coaching high school soccer and nordic skiing.

But, he said, he's not giving up baseball coaching. Whether he'll still be the Rebels' coach next year is uncertain.

Going to a larger high school program is a possibility, he said. But the most important consideration is whether the ball players -- and their parents -- are committed to the community's baseball program.

The Bethel area fits that description, so he could stay right here, he "Baseball has always been wellsupported here. It's a good place to be," he said.

Remington is strengthening his own background in the sport by joining the American Baseball Coaches' Association.

In January, he traveled to San Diego to attend a four-day conven-"It was great. They had outstand-

In terms of winning games, the best team he coached was, of course, the 1989 squad that won the State Championship.

"They were an exceptional team, with the best baseball player we ever had at Telstar (Gary Williamson, who went on to lead USM to a national championship),

But in overall accomplishment, said Remington, "the '95 and '97 teams were right there with them, in terms of how much they developed over the season. "They accomplished more than what was expected of them," he said.

His favorite team was the 1985 squad. "Those guys liked to play baseball. They had fun, and they were always upbeat," said Remington. "They made the playoffs, but I don't even remember if they won a playoff game."

Both of Remington's sons, Brant and Tim, played for him. He was asked if that added an extra challenge to coaching.

"They made it easy. They just did it," he said. Still, although he tried not to think of them as sons on the field, "you're always a parent," he said.

Remington said that while he thought he had put his father role out of his mind as a coach, after his sons graduated, "things were not quite the same when they weren't

His greatest satisfaction in coaching overall, he said, came in working with individual players, "and then seeing them use what they were taught in practice."

Moses Mason House

For those interested in western Maine history, two people may be of interest. One was Luther Whiting Mason (1818-1896), an important music educator, whose career as an instructor and textbook editor spanned much of the 19th century and several continents. Born in Turner, he taught in Delaware and Maryland and directed music programs in Louisville and Cincinnati, He taught music in Boston, supervised classroom teachers and established teacher training programs, In Boston and Philadelphia he came in contact with Japanese students, Later he spent considerable time abroad, particularly in Japan developing Japanese music textbooks. He died in Buckfield, and is buried in the North Buckfield Cemetery. The Bethel Historical Society has recently received a biography, "Luther Whiting Mason: International Music Educator" by Sondra Wieland Howe and published in 1997 by Harmonie Park Press, Warren, Mich,

Dr. Frank E. Barton was born in Bethel in 1898, the son of the Universalist minister. He graduated from Gloucester, Mass., High School and received his undergraduate education at the University of Maine. He received From the his medical education at Boston University and became a nationally-known surgeon and member of the medical faculty at Boston University, At one time he also served as a trustee of Boston University and president of its Alumni Association. In the latter capacity he headed the drive to raise $60,000,000 for the university. He died in 1961 at the age of 63.

Society receives $1,000 donation for geneaology books A gift of $1,000 has been presented to the Bethel Historical Society from Robert and Janet Spidell of Anaheim, Calif., and Andover. The gift was designated for the acquisition of books relating to family history research. Mr. Spidell is an avid genealogist with numerous ancestral connections to the western Maine region.

"We are very grateful to Beb Spidell for this gift," said Randall H. Bennett, curator of collections at the society. "It will allow us to acquire some important works relating to the area and fill some of the gaps in our everexpanding genealogical collection," he added.

The society is a major center for genealogical and historical research for western Maine and the White Mountains. Presently a thousand members strong, it is the region's largest and most comprehensive historical agency, dedicated to preserving and interpreting the area's past for present and future generations. Its activities include monthly meetings, exhibits, lectures, special events, school and adult education programs, and publications.

The society's operations are located in its headquarters, the Dr. Moses Mason House (1813), which contains a period house museum, meeting space, research facilities, and museum shop. It is currently conducting a capital campaign to add more museum space and to establish its Center for Local and Regional History. Those wishing to learn more about the society and its proposed center are urged to call (207) 824-2908 or (800) 824-2910 or e-mail (history@bdc.bethel.me.us).

Bethel Consérvation Commission

The Mt. Will hiking trail took its share of ice storm damage, and Commission members and others have been working to clear the many trail obstructions. So far, the three-quarter mile section up to the North Ledges has been cleared, along with the bottom half-mile of the South Cliffs section. There are still about two miles to go -- the upper half of the South Cliffs section and the long section across the top of the

To speed up the remaining work, hikers are invited to help out. Bring a bow saw and branch clippers with you, and spend 10 to 15 minutes along the way clearing away some debris.

A few early-blooming wildflowers are already out along the trail, and flower identification signs are being put up -- mostly within a few minutes walk of the trailhead. Last year, over 80 different varieties were located and marked, and we hope to exceed that this year.

Telstar Alumni Association

The monthly meeting of the Telstar Alumni Association was held on Tuesday, April 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Telstar library.

Fourteen members were present and talked about the dance that was held on Saturday, April 11, at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills, featuring the Impalas. Everyone present agreed that the dance was a huge success and a good time was had by all that attended. It was also suggested by the members to plan another dance for sometime in the fall, possibly mid-

Carroll Higgins came and talked to our group about the sports schedule for Homecoming Weekend, which is scheduled for October 2 and 3. The Alumni Association would like to plan some activities for Saturday, October 3, but for now, we still need ideas and, as always, volunteers.

Other business talked about was: 1. Mollyockett Day -- July 18, we would like to do a float. 2. Alumni Weekend -- August 8, to be held at Telstar, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., for all alumni and family. 3. We would also like to be able to send out a yearly newsletter, but still need a lot of addresses of former Telstar graduates. And we need help to do this. All alumni are urged to send their current address to: Telstar High School, 284 Walkers Mills Rd., Bethel, ME 04217, Attn: Telstar Alumni Association.

The meeting was adjourned at 8 p.m. and the next regular alumni meeting is to be held on Tuesday, May 12, at 6:30 p.m. in the Telstar library. All alumni are invited.

Alumni who graduated in the years 1993, 1988, 1983, 1978 and 1973 are trying to plan reunions and also need to find former classmates. If anyone knows where some of their classmates are, please forward the addresses to

African and jazz music. Members of this year's troupe include Kim Hamlin, Sarah Leavitt, Katy Jayne, Sarah Howard, Jessie Chase, Amanda Graffam, Christina Diaz, Amy Shibles, Jennifer Rosenblit, Susan Brown and Johanna

Professional dancer Debi Irons inspires self-motivation in life through dance, guiding each individual to aspire toward their own unique potential; teaching correct yet natural technique in varient dance forms for a broad foundation. Irons is trained in modern, jazz, ballet, acrobatics, Afro-Brasilian,

ATTORNEY GENERAL,

ASSOCIATED HOSPITAL SERVICE dba BLUE CROSS AND BLUE SHIELD OF MAINE

CIVIL ACTION DOCKET NO. CV-98-41

Plaintiff

NOTICE TO MEMBERS AND CONTRACT HOLDERS OF BLUE CROSS AND BLUE SHIELD OF MAINE

In 1997, the Maine legislature passed a law which clarifies the ownership and charitable purposes of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Maine (BCBSME) and other similar

DESCRIPTION OF THE LAW

This new Maine law states that nonprofit hospital and medical service organizations like BCBSME are charitable and benevolent institutions. The law also says that these organizations are public charities. Thus, their assets are to be used to fulfill the charitable purposes of the organizations. BCBSME's charitable purposes include providing affordable health insurance and managed care products to persons of all incomes. These purposes also include identifying and addressing unmet health care needs in Maine, especially the needs of medically

The new law takes specific steps to protect the interests of both the public and BCBSME's subscribers in the event that BCBSME decides to make a material change in its form such as a change in its charitable ownership, charitable purposes, or corporate form. For example, the law establishes procedures for the review of a material change in BCBSME's corporate form, such as its conversion to a stock, for-profit company, by the Superintendent of Insurance and the Attorney General. If BCBSME undergoes such a "material change in form", the law requires its charitable assets to be paid to a charitable trust for the benefit of the people of the State of Maine. Furthermore, the law defines what proportion of BCBSME's fair market value is

The new law contains a designation of the public and subscriber ownership interests in BCBSME, as follows:

. If there is a "material change in form" on or before December 31, 2000, then 100 percent of the fair market value of BCBSME must be paid to the charitable trust.

. If there is a "material change in form" between December 31, 2000 and December 31, 2005, then 95 percent of the fair market value of BCBSME must be paid to the charitable trust. BCBSME subscribers would be entitled to the remaining five percent. . If there is a "material change in form" after December 31, 2005, then 90 percent of the fair market value of BCBSME must be paid to the charitable trust. BCBSME subscribers would be entitled to the remaining ten percent. . These subscribers include any person who has been a Blue Cross and Blue Shield subscriber for at least three consecutive months during the three year period immediately before the change. There are approximately 210,000 BCBSME subscribors at this time, Another 100,000 individuals were subscribers for at least three consecutive months during the past three years. Thus, for example, if the number of BCBSME subscribers does not change significantly, and BCBSME converts to a stock, for profit company on July 1, 2001, then 5% of the company's fair market value would be divided among approximately 310,000 individuals, each of whom would receive a check for his or her share.

· At this time, BCBSME has no plans to convert to a for-profit company or make any other "material change in form." It is impossible to predict whether such a change

. The new law does not change the health insurance coverage or premiums of any BCBSME subscriber. The new law requires BCBSME to:

· prepare this Notice;

· mail the Notice to its members and contract holders; and · publish the Notice in newspapers across the State of Maine.

BCBSME must notify its members and contract holders now because the new law affects anyone who claims to own any right, title or interest in the company.

The new law is intended to make clear the ownership of BCBSME. The law states that no one has any right, title or interest in the assets and fair market value of BCBSME, except as provided in the designation of ownership interests described above. Persons or entities who object to this designation of ownership interests in BCBSME, including persons who object to the way in which the fair market value of BCBSME would be distributed in the event of a material change in form, may object to the new law as violating their rights. Anyone who claims any ownership of BCBSME other than as described in the new law will have only one chance to object and can only do so as described below ("Claims/Objections Procedure"). Any person who does not object as described below will never be able to claim any other ownership of BCBSME.

CLAIMS/OBJECTIONS PROCEDURE The new law provides for a court procedure to resolve any ownership claims to BCBSME. Anyone who claims any right, title or interest in BCBSME, or who objects to the designation of ownership interests and charitable purposes described above, must put the claim or objection in writing and file it on or before June 19, 1998. Any claim or objection will be considered by the Superior Court for Kennebec County (docket no.CV-98-41) only if it is filed in writing at the court address fisted below before the deadline established by the court. Any and all persons or entities that claim any right, title or ownership interest in BCBSME, or who object to the designation of ownership interest and charitable purposes described above, MUST file their claim and/or their objection, in writing with the Superior Court for Kennebec County at the following address:

Maine Superior Court for Kennebec County Attention: Docket No. CV-98-41

95 State Street Augusta, Maine 04330

The court must receive the written claim or objection by June 19, 1998,

The court will hold a hearing to consider all of the claims and objections filed within the deadline. This hearing will be held at the Superior Court for Kennebec County, 95 State Street, Augusta. Maine on July 17, 1998. After this hearing, the court will decide whether the designation of ownership interests and charitable purposes contained in the new law should be approved, approved with changes, or disapproved because they are unlawful.

NO PERSON OR ENTITY CLAIMING OWNERSHIP OF BCBSME OR OBJECTING TO THE DESIGNATION OF OWNERSHIP INTERESTS OR CHARITABLE PURPOSES SHALL BE HEARD AT THE HEARING, AND NO PAPER, BRIEF OR EVIDENCE SUBMITTED BY ANY SUCH PERSON OR ENTITY WILL BE RECEIVED OR CONSIDERED BY THE COURT, UNLESS THAT PERSON OR ENTITY HAS FILED A WRITTEN CLAIM OR OBJECTION BY THE JUNE 19, 1998 DEADLINE.

IF YOU DO NOT FILE A WRITTEN CLAIM OR OBJECTION WITH THE SUPERIOR COURT BY JUNE 19, 1998, YOUR CLAIM OR OBJECTION IS PERMANENTLY BARRED, WHICH MEANS THAT IT CANNOT BE RAISED IN THE FUTURE AND HAS NO VALUE. YOU NEED NOT APPEAR AT THE HEARING OR TAKE ANY OTHER ACTION UNLESS YOU ARE SEEKING TO OBJECT TO THE DESIGNATION OF OWNERSHIP INTERESTS OR CHARITABLE PURPOSES OR ASSERT A CLAIM OF OWNERSHIP IN BCBSME IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS NOTICE.

IF YOU ARE UNSURE WHETHER YOU SHOULD FILE A CLAIM OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST IN BCBSME OR AN OBJECTION TO THE DESIGNATION OF OWNERSHIP INTERESTS AND CHARITABLE PURPOSES CONTAINED IN THE NEW LAW, YOU MAY WISH TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY, IF YOU HAVE HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE WITH BCBSME AND DO NOT ORJECT TO THE DESIGNATION OF OWNERSHIP INTERESTS AND

CHARITABLE PURPOSES DESCRIBED ABOVE, YOU DO NOT NEED TO DO ANYTHING. AS NOTED PREVIOUSLY THE NEW LAW DOES NOT CHANGE THE HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE OR PREMIUMS OF ANY BUBSCRIBER.

INFORMATION

If you have any other questions about this Notice, or if you would like a copy of the new law, please call I-888-324-9995 or write Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Maine, PO 9762, Portland, ME 04104-5062. Note: Do not send claims of ownership or objections to this address. Such claims of ownership or objections must be filed with the Superior Court for Kennebec County. Also, this telephone number and this address are only for purposes of this Notice.

The court approved the form of this Notice, which summarizes certain provisions of the new law, 1997 Me, Laws Ch, 344. This Notice is not a complete summary of the new law, It is only a notice that certain claims and objections will be barred and extinguished unless they are filed with the Superior Court for Kennebec County as stated in this Notice.

ASK A LAWYER.

Question: My husband and I have a charitable trust from which we received interest for quite a few years. Now the interest has dropped off to zero. We don't understand this. We believed we would get interest for as long as we live. How can this happen, and what should Answer:

The assumption that you would continue receiving interest for your lifetime is a reasonable one. Most charitable trusts that pay income are designed to do exactly that, although it is impossible to be certain about your particular trust without a review of the documents. By way of general information, however, here are some suggestions for further ac-

You say that you "have" a charitable trust. If this means that you are the creator of the trust (the legal term is the "settlor"), you probably also serve as the trustee (or co-trustee) of that trust. As trustee, you can control the invest-

On the other hand, if you are a beneficiary but not the creator of the trust, you are entitled to see the trustee's records of how the trust assets have been (and currently are) invested and how these investments have performed. The trustee cannot ignore the legal obligations to you as the income beneficiary to favor the residuary beneficiary (the charity which is the ultimate or remainder beneficiary). That is, in most cases it would be inappropriate for the trustee to invest only in growth stocks that produce no current income but increase the value of the principal.

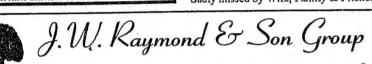

If the trustee is not forthcoming with the investment and performance information you request, or if the trustee has squandered the trust assets or not invested them appropriately, the Probate Court has the power to remove the trustee, to

In Loving Memory of J. Russell Fifield

God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be, so He put His arms around you and whispered "Come with Me." With tearful eyes we watched you suffer, and saw you fade away, although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove, He only takes the best. It's lonesome here without you, we miss you more each day, life doesn't seem the same, since you've gone away. When days are sad and lonely, And everything goes wrong, We seem to hear you whisper "Cheer up and carry on." Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, We'll meet again punish the trustee who has failed, and to replace the trustee,

The law imposes on a trustee what are called "fiduciary" obligations, which require the highest standards of trustworthiness and fairness. A fundamental fiduciary obligation is to account and provide, upon reasonable request, full information to all interested parties. A trustee who is reluctant to provide such information, or unwilling to provide complete information, will almost always be found to have failed in his fiduciary obligations, Such conduct by a trustee, by the way, should make any beneficiary highly suspicious.

Your first step, therefore, is to obtain information from the trustee and to review the decisions the trustee has made regarding handling of the trust assets and the investment of these assets. To evaluate the trustee's performance, you may need the assistance of an attorney, a financial professional, or both.

If the trustee's performance has been unsatisfactory, but not in violation of law or fiduciary stan-
